The finances of the Territory are being materially benefited through the work being prosecuted by Deputy Attorney General Sutton in connection with the collection of delinquent sewer rates in the District Court. Of the suits that have been brought to a conclusion favorable to the Territory the sum of $10,527.85 has been collected and a large amount will undoubtedly be collected through the suits yet pending. The sewer rate suits have all been placed in Sutton's hands by Attorney General Hemenway.

The copy of the paper containing the account was received by Governor Frear.

The steamer Pleiades, Captain Armstrong, which arrived off port last night, came in this morning and docked at the railroad wharf, where she commenced to discharge her freight of 3700 tons. Owing to her having on board explosives she flew the red flag on her foremast, where it will remain until they are unloaded. She made the trip from San Francisco in eight days, 5 hours and thirty minutes. It is said that she will return to San Francisco direct, after leaving this port, taking a large shipment of pineapples.

Explorer Cook Greeted By A Thousand Guests

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—A thousand members and guests were present at the banquet given by the Arctic Club of America to Dr. Cook tonight. Dr. Cook described his voyage and adventures in detail and deprecated any argument between himself and Peary. He stated that the honors are sufficient for all and that it matters little who happened to find the pole first.

STORM AND TIDAL WAVE.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 23.—A terrific hurricane with tremendous rains swept over this city today. The waterfront was devastated by the tidal wave that was forced up by the wind, and 500 houses were destroyed. Hundreds of persons were drowned or crushed by falling ruins and thousands are homeless and wandering through the streets of the upper city without food or shelter.

CHINESE MAKES SUCCESSFUL FLIGHT.

OAKLAND, Sept. 23.—Fung Guop, a Chinese aviator, made the first successful flight in a motor-driven aeroplane ever accomplished on the Pacific Coast here today. The distance he traveled was half a mile. Both the start and the alighting of the machine were quite successful.

JUDGES ARBITRATE.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 23.—Judges Wilson and Audenreid today were agreed to as arbiters in the thirty-million-dollar suit brought by the Pennsylvania Refining Company against the American Refining Company.

MILLIONS OF CIGARS.

MANILA, Sept. 23.—The immense demand for Manila cigars on the mainland since the duty was raised was shown by the cargo shipped aboard the Siberia today. It consisted of four million choice weels.

HAVOC WROUGHT IN SYRIA.

HOMS, Syria, Sept. 23.—Torrential rains and high winds today wrought havoc all through the country. Late crops were destroyed by force of the wind and rain, and the people are in a state of panic.

DAMAGE BY STORM.

PARIS, Sept. 23.—A severe wind storm accompanied by earthquake crossed almost the entire country today. In the South there was considerable damage, both from the hurricane and the earthquake.

PARADE ATTACKED.

BARCELONA, Sept. 23.—A religious procession parading the city was attacked by a mob of fanatical rioters here today. Before the police could quell the riot, two were killed and fifty-six wounded.

PRESIDENT TAFT ON WEST.

MONTROSE, Sept. 23.—President Taft left here for Salt Lake City this afternoon.
